THE FIRST MONDAY OF NOVEMBER. - This TE 17 he a great day in Washington, some way or other. but how we cannot ascertain. The recent acts of the City Councils, prohibiting tippling houses and hops, construed by the City Attorney to apply to all clailers of liquors, from the highest to the lowe-t, as necessarily made a stir among the landlords. They scarcely know what to do, and have many masing notions about the matter. Some think the hould all shut up, and not let the most thirsty soul have a single drop, for love or money; others tha they should keep open, sell, and take the conse quences, and, if convicted, all march in regular proestion to the work-house. Officers and emblens have been talked of for the grand cavalcade. One is to carry a bologna sausage and a bottle of French brandy, another a depot of lager beer, the nexta jug of potteen, followed by others bearing Kuhl-ing draughts, such as ice-water, the fat man with a decanter of the best Holland gin, the other fat man to be absente, the Kirk to be in the woods, the Union blown up all to be done Brown, Nationality to pass away, the Potomac to be dried up, and the United States to flourish no more. A certain Shanghai is be standard bearer, a d a certain Marshal to be Chief Marshal, with a few jolly fellows as aids; builfrom and bull salters to croak most musically, all to illuminated with the fires of lit-up clay pipes in merald lips, and fancy pipes in saurkraut receivers. and all to be in the most Tower-ing give. Arrived at their destination, a grand dinner of bulls' eyes and mions is to be spread and the bill offare, altogether, what no hotel on this city ever laid before their quests. The widows who keep small shops are to ome out in omnibuses, and flackney coaches, and the members of the Councils, who voted for the bid, be ca rred out on rails. Prosperi's Band has been engaged expressly for the occasion. Many other arrangements are to be made "too numerous to mention," as Shakspeare said. Seriously speaking, the first Monday of November next is to be a very merry, melancholy, queer kind of a day. I'm dry-for time

BALLS! BALLS! BALLS!-Several of these popular entertainments have taken place already, and announcements are made of more to come off of an interesting character. Among them we note the following, in the order of their taking place:

The Americus Chub Bail .- Next Tuesday evening this grand affair is to take place at Temperance Hall, when the best coullon music and all things accessory to the enjoyment of the evening will be provided. Messrs. E. G. Evans, E. F. Queen, and D Darden, are the capable floor managers, and the general managers are Messrs. S. P. Robertson. Robt. Johnson, W. E. Morgan, Thos. Johnson, J. G. Robinson, W. H. Dice, S. E. Culverwell, J. W. Houck, Charles Matlock, Wm. Johnson, F. A. Rear-American Riflemen's Bail .- On the evening of the 19th of October, the anniversary of the battle of Vorktown, and the day of the grand parade of the Washington military, this festive meeting is to take place, for which excellent arrangements have been maile-to be noticed bereafter. It will take place at Carusi's saloon. President's Mounted Guards .- This gallant corp has fixed upon November 2d for their interesting b. and are preparing for it with their usual high spirit. They have selected Odd Fellows' Hall for the place of their rich entertainment. Island Social Club.-The second grand annual bal of this generous association takes place at Island Hall on the 6th November, and will "follow in the footsteps of its illustrious predecessor," for thrilling The National Greys .- A splendid subscription ball is being gotten up by this spirited company, to conre off on the 13th of November. Others .- There are other military companies an.

elubs preparing for the ball season, who will anthat a time is coming-

"When gas and beauty's blendid rays Sets hearts and ball-rooms in a blaze, Or spermaceti's light reveals

More 'inward bruises' than it heals: In flames each belte her victim kills And 'sparks fly upwards' in quadrilles."

DRILL OF THE OFFICERS .- An object anxiously de ared by many of the military of Washington was at tained last night, or at least the beginning of the attainment was accomplished, which will add much to the military efficiency of the Washington Regiment. Major Bacon, among others, has been as sidious for years in his efforts to effect this object. and the commander of the regiment, Col. Hickey. has taken an active part towards the desired end. Last evening the officers of the staff, and of companies, had their first drill at Military Hall, (late Copp's Saloon, and exhibited by their numbers and the esprit de corps of each officer, that our military are to still more improve in martial exercises. Those present were Col. Hickey, (who conducted the drill,) Lieut. Colonel Reiley, Maj. Keyworth, Maj. Bacon, Quartermaster McCollum, Adjutant Middleton, As sistant Surgeon Grimes, Capt. Joseph Peck, Lieut-Baden, Flint, Bohlayer, Sergeants Finch and King, and Ensign Peck of the President's Mounted Guard; Captain Joseph A. Tait, Lieut. Allen, and Ensign Lloyd, of the National Guard; Captain Bright, and and Lieut. Feeny, of the Montgomery Guards. The other officers of companies not present, as well as staff officers, are expected to unite in the laudable movement at the next drill, and doubtless will, so that by united exertion the whole may be made fully efficient. The drill last night was one of much interest to all present, Col. Hickey conducting it with much spirit, giving every assurance of progression in SEIZURE OF BREAD .- This morning the officers at the Centre Market, in enforcing the law regulating the weight of baker's bread, came upon a number of leaves weighing more than the required weight. Thirty loaves were taken from Havenner, and a number from Seitz. Mr. Havenner immediately called upon J M. Carlisle, Esq., and engaged him tion. to enter a suit for damages agains the Corporation. The bread taken from the bakers is sent to the work house for the use of the inmates, and the bakers are subject to a fine besides We learn that other loaves, numbering altogether 175, have also been seized. This is a strange operation, forfeiting bread for heing of over weight, and the acts of seizing it should be put to the legal test, as the bakers have de REPORTED CHOLERA .- Some sfarm has been ereated this morning by the report that cholera, to some extent, prevails in this city. Mr. Th mas Wheeler formerly or Baltimore, li ing on Indiana avenue near Second street, was taken suddenl ill yesterday, after his return from Baltimore, where, it is stated, he very injudiciously partook of some oysters. and this morning, he breathed his last. The attending physician, we understand, reports the case as one of cholera, but it is probably one of aggravated cholera morbus .- Globe.

Mr. Wheeler was an industrious carpenter, and ho est man, and leaves an affl cred wife and la ge family to mourn their sudden bereavement.

ROBBING A CONSTABLE. On Thursday morning last, one of our county constables had some business to attend to in the country, and his wife went to market leaving a little girl ten years of age in charge of the house. While they were gone a fellow went to the house and made the little girl be lieve he had business with her father He asked her for a glass of water, and while she went to get it, the fellow broke into the bureau and stole a gold watch and chain; two gold feb chains; riogs, breastpine, a $20 and a $10 note, and escaped with his booty. Look out for the thief!

Fuss on the Island .- About 10 o'clock, last night, the neighborhood near Island Hall was aroused by screams and cries of murder. Men half-dressed Pennsylvania avenue and 7th street, and all dealers in medwhere the disturbance origi nated, when it was discovered that a man had entered the house armed with a gun, and ordered the females to stop singing. He said he was a policeman, which was not so. His abrupt conduct caused the females to cry murder. The watch was sent for, but when they reached the spot the bird had WASHINGTONIANS LOST ON THE ARCTIC.-Despatches have been received which leave no doubt of the loss of Mr. Thos. Hewitt and wife, formerly of Washington, in the Arctic. He and his wife were seen on board of her just before she went down, and there is no hope of their having saved themselves, except in the mere possibility that they might have escaped on some floating article, which is not at all probable. The despatches are to Mr. Hewitt's triends, and are to be considered as final,

CROWDING TO WYMAN'S .- The people of the Navy Yard filled to overflowing their new Odd-Pellows' Hall last night, and were much gratified with the performances of the Wizza d. This evening be gives another entertainment there, after which he goes to Alexandria, where we suggest to the lovers of the wonde ful to be prepared to see that "s me things can be done as well as others." Dr. E. Denman, the gentlemanly agent, informs us that the

Magician has met with extraordinary success in his whole recent tour. THE CASE OF HOWARD VS. HALL, mentioned in yesterday's Star as having been tried in New York, recently, and resulting in a heavy verdiet for the lady, Miss Annie Howard, formerly of this city, was an action for breach of promise, not for seduction and breach of promise as stated in the northern papers, from which we extracted the item of news.

AT ALEXANDRIA AND COMING. - The linmense combined circuses of Messrs. Spalding & Rogers are to perform at Alexandria on Monday night, and be it MILITARY LECTURES .- On Monday evening, Capt-Byrne of the Union Guards, a highly experienced tactician, commences a series of lectures on the art of war, which it would be advantageous to all our militar, men to hear. All the officers at their meeting last night resolved to attend. They promise to be both interesting and instructive.

IMMIGRATION -Latterly many of our foreign born citizens have taken a notion to leave the District and locate in the States. About sixteen Irish famies left the Seventh Ward ab ut ten days since, and started to find a home in western Virginia. Many have also feft their homes in the Fourth and Fifth Wards and started for the West.

Sons of Temperance .- At the annual meeting of the Grand Division, held on Thursday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: G. W. Patriarch, H. G. Divine; Grand Worthy Associate, W. J. Rhees; Grand Scribe, R. G. Camp-II; Grand Treasurer, C. W. Shriner; Grand Chaplain, John Johnson; Grand Conductor, A. D. Baker; Grand Sentinel, W. J. Bell.

THE OTHER ANTI-LIQUOR BILL SIGNED .- The act to "license, tax, and regulate wholesale and retail dealers, and for other purposes," the substance of which was published in the Star of Thursday last, has received the signature of the Mayor, and goes into effect on the first day of November next.

CERTRE MARKET .- Although the weather was threatening during the whole of last night, the market was well supplied with provisions of excellent quality. The prices are not so high as they have een, and have a downward tendency.

Sound .- Schwa ze's oysters are sound, as we know by experience, as they did not cholera us; and those who chose to take our word for it can try the delicious bivalves at the restaurant, corner of E and Eleventh street.

As a DESSERT after dinner, we append the follow ing, from some poetic friend, to our closing labors of Acrostic .- To " Item" of the Evening Star. Still brightly shed thy cheering ray On wealth, or humble lot. Rekindle Freedom's light to-day, And beam up n the cot, No cloud to mar-the Evening Star.

WATCH BETURSS .- John Smith, free negro, pro fanity; workhouse thirty days. Catharine Brown, profanity; fine and cost. Mathew Kennedy, white, trunk; security and cost.

GEORGETOWN CORRESPONDENCE.

GEORGETOWN, October 14, 1854. The most intense anxiety is felt by the parents and numerous friends of joung Robertson, of our c ty, who was on board the ill-fated Arctic. Hopes are entertained that the boat in which he was may yet reach fand in safety. The panic which was caused in our city several days ago by the occurrence of several very sudden deaths, has entirely subsided. Every death of the kind which has occurred, with but one exception, (that of Mr. Frush.) e n be traced directly to unprudence in eating or drinking. The general health of our city never was better at this season. The Young Men's Christian Association have located themselves on Bridge street, over the bookstore of E. K. Lundy, where they will hold their meetings on the first Monday of every mouth. The Association now numbers 80 members, and is rapid-

A meeting was held last Sabbath in Trinity Church, and preliminary steps taken for the formation of a ics' rriend Society. The objects of the association, as set forth in their circular, viz: the relief of distress and the education of the poor, are certainly very laudable-ones, and we sincerely hope that their efforts may be crowned with abundant success. ALEXANDRIA CORRESPONDENCE

Weather-Religious Services-Bahibition-Gas-Amusements-Business, &c. ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 14, 1854. A dull, rainy morning opens the day, with promise of continued rain. On Thursday morning, a solemn requiem mass, for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Catharine Roach, Lieuts. Ober and Sanderson, of the Boons Riflemen; was celebrated at St. Mary's Church, Rev. J. E. Blox officiating. The reverend officiant also preached a most eloquent discourse on the occasion.

On the evening of the same day, the students of the Rev. James Kirk's Academy had an exhibition, consisting of prose and poetical acdresses, dialogues, &c., at Liberty Hall. The whole affair came of finely, and reflects great credit on all engaged. is, however, not invidious to notice the excellence with which masters Green and Peyton sustained the characters of Fitz James and Roderick Dhu, in a seene from the Lady of the Lake. The entertainment was witnessed by many hundreds of persons who thronged the hall. Posperi's band added the charms of music to the grace of elocution displayed upon the occasion, and at a seasonable hour, the audience retired highly pleased with the calibi-

PUBE COD LIVER OIL.—Several distinguished medical gentiemen have lately published papers showing the efficiency of this simple remedy in removing Coughs, Influenza, Bronchitis, and other irritating diseases of the throat and lungs. It is important not only that the oil should be pure, but that it should be prepared from none but fresh and healthy livers, as that which is stale or impure is not only worthless, but highly injurious, troubling the digestive organs, and deranging the whole vital economy. The pure article is destitute of any nauseous taste or odor, but slightly colored, and scarcely distasteful. Of this nature the advertiser warrants the Oil offered by him. Z. D.
